Sisters and Brothers in Christ, welcome to another celebration of the Lord's Day. A warm welcome to those who may be visiting us for the first time; please feel free to join us again.

June is the beginning of the hurricane season. The season begins on the first of June and ends on the 30th of November. We are grateful to God for each day we go through the season without interruptions. At the same time there is opportunities given to us to make preparation on an individual, family, community and national level.

We continue to collect non-perishable food items and toiletries for the students. Kindly take these on Sundays. Thanks to those who continue to give donations. Please speak with Professor James Robertson if you plan to make a contribution.

A copy of the bulletin is uploaded on the website on Friday or Saturday each week. Members can download a copy of the bulletin onto their electronic device and thereby help us protect the environment by enabling us to print less copies of the bulletin each week. In the meanwhile we are still seeking volunteers to print the weekly bulletin. We use an average of fifty copies each week.

Last week I attended a consultation in Trinidad designed to address the issues related to migrant and mobile populations, especially as it relates to addressing the epidemic of HIV and AIDS in the region. The Caribbean remains the region with the second highest rate of HIV infection in the world. With the reality of mobile and migration populations the spread of the virus is even more a threat to the health of the region. It was recognized that HIV is a threat not just to the mobile and migratory population but also to the general population which interacts with people on the move from one place to another. We are often inundated by news of people from Asia and Africa seeking to get into Europe or from Latin America and the Caribbean seeking to get into North America. There are, however, migrant and mobile populations within countries as well as within the region (Latin America and the Caribbean). There is the movement of Venezuelans and Brazilians into the Caribbean and the challenges of language and culture provide opportunities for new ways of being human and providing care, love and support for our fellow human beings. Jamaicans are known to move across the region and the case of Myrie v Barbados is a stark reminder. The consultation based its outcomes on a number of international covenants including the rights of the child, of persons living with disabilities, of migrant workers, the right to information and the right to health. These rights find full expression in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights which was promulgated in the 1930s. We were reminded that migrant and mobile populations are people too and deserve the same respect as any other citizen of a country. From a Christian standpoint they deserve respect because they are made in the image and likeness of God (Gen. 1:27). Every blessing, Garth Visioning Prayer: Almighty and ever living God, ruler of all things in heaven and on earth, and by whose grace we have been called into a goodly fellowship of faith: Send down upon our bishops, other clergy, and all your faithful people an outpouring of your Holy Spirit for the renewal and mission of your Church. Give us a vision of where you would lead your Church, and so discern new things that you are doing in your Church and the world. By your grace, save us from unnecessary distractions, so that we may be able to determine your will for us, go forward perceiving that which is right, and have the courage to pursue the same, to the end that we may utilise the gifts which you have given to each of us for the furtherance of your will in simplicity, confidence and steadfastness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Discipleship: Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have awakened your church to hear again the call of our Saviour Jesus Christ to come to Him to learn from Him. Grant that as we say 'yes' to His call to discipleship, your Holy Spirit will enable us so completely to commit all the areas of our lives to His service, that in our personal, family and church lives, our work, recreational and social lives, we would act as Jesus would have acted if he were in our place; in His name and for His sake we pray. Amen

The Ministry of the Word

First Reading Wisdom of Solomon 1: 13-15, 2: 23-24

Psalm 30

Lord, I will thee extol, for thou hast lifted me on high,
And over me thou to rejoice
mad'st not mine enemy.

O thou who art the Lord my God,
I in distress to thee,
With loud cries lifted up my voice,
and thou hast healèd me.

O Lord, my soul thou hast brought up,
and rescued from the grave;
That I to pit should not go down,
alive thou didst me save.

O ye that are his holy ones,
sing praise unto the Lord;
And give unto him thanks, when ye his holiness record.

For but a moment lasts his wrath;
life in his favor lies:
Weeping may for a night endure,
at morn doth joy arise.

Give glory to the Father Son
And Spirit equally
As from the first it was is now
And evermore shall be.
